About Free Arts

Free Arts for Abused Children of Arizona is a nonprofit organization that heals homeless and abused children through artistic expression. Volunteer Mentors utilize visual, performing and culinary arts to help spark the creative spirit of children living in group homes, residential treatment centers and shelters across Maricopa County. Since 1993, Free Arts has touched the lives of more than 60,000 young people, helping them build self-esteem, improve social skills, renew trust and learn to express emotions in a positive way through the healing effects of the creative arts.

Application procedure:

Submit a one page letter of interest, a current resume and one professional/academic reference letter.
